

London Harvest Festival 2022 Photography Competition

Class list and judging criteria

A) Photography competition

Categories in this section are judged on their artistic interpretation of the category and aesthetic merit.

1. Volunteer
2. Farm animal
3. Community growing
4. Working cat or dog
5. Pollinators
6. Pondlife
7. Farm or garden photo taken by a young person (ages 14 and under)

1st place: £100

2nd Place: £50

B) Digital competition

Categories in this section are judged using the digital evidence provided.

8. Heaviest Pumpkin: Send us a photo of the heaviest pumpkin being weighed.
9. Tallest Sunflower: Entry must show proof of height
10. Square meter: demonstrate what you can do with a single square metre of space (photo must show measurements)
11. Quirky container: where food, flowers or other plants are actively growing.
12. Recipe for cooked or baked produce

We will award 3 points for 1st place, 2 points for 2nd place and 1 point for 3rd place in each category. Points will be totaled by project to calculate winner and second place

1st Place: £100

2nd Place £50

Limit 3 entries per project, 1 entry per person.

All entries are due 10 September 2022 at midnight

Email entry with form to: Rachel@londonharvestfestival.org.uk

London Harvest Festival 2022
Photography Competition

Entry Form

Please download this form, fill it in and email it to Rachel@londonharvestfestival.org.uk along with your photo.

You may enter one photo per person per category. Projects may have multiple entries.

Entries must adhere to the competition criteria.

Please use one form per entry, photographs without forms will not be accepted.

Deadline for all entries is 23:59, 10 September 2022

Name:

Project:

Category

I have the required permissions of any persons in this photo (or their guardian if aged under 18) to share this photo.

I agree for this photo to be reproduced by the London City Farms & Community Gardens Association and Social Farms & Gardens for the purposes of promoting the London Harvest Festival and for promoting the charitable work of the organizations.